ABOUT ME

Juliette is a Brussels-based creator, model, and rising talent with the kind of energy that lights up every room she walks into.

By day, she works in the event industry, a world that suits her perfectly, built on connection, creativity, and making moments memorable.

But Juliette's ambitions don't stop there. She's a fashion model, a content creator, and someone with a whole universe of projects in the making including launching her music career as a singer.

Across Instagram and TikTok, Juliette is just getting started and that's exactly what makes her exciting. She's stepping into regular content creation with the same good energy and natural presence she brings everywhere else: stylish, radiant, and genuinely herself.

Open to collaborations, brand partnerships, and new adventures, Juliette is the kind of profile that grows fast and stays real, a fresh face with serious potential and a lot more to come.
